Bye Law (A) To Article 5.2

Representations, Suspensions, Disqualifications, Authorisations to play non affiliates

- A. To be eligible to represent a country in an inter nations event, an Athlete must be a national of the country. Where more than one country recognizes the nationality of an Athlete, that Athlete may only represent the country in which the Athlete is a bona fide resident.
- B. The rules for the eligibility of Athletes to compete in Olympic Games are governed by the IOC Olympic Charter.
- C. A junior Athlete, who is a national of two or more countries at the same time, may elect to represent only one of them but while a junior he may, with the approval of the Executive Board, elect to represent the other of which he is a national.
- D. A junior Athlete who, having represented a country while he is a junior, obtains a second or another nationality may, with the approval of the Executive Board, represent that second or other country.
- E. On a junior Athlete who has represented a country at junior level becoming a senior Athlete, he may make a new choice but, having made that choice and having represented a country at senior level, he cannot then represent another country at senior level without the prior written approval of the NAs concerned and the Executive Board.
- F. A senior Athlete who is a national of two or more countries at the same time may elect to - represent only one of them. Having represented a country at senior level, he cannot then represent another country for three years from the date he last represented the original country without the prior written approval of the NAs concerned and the Executive Board

- G. An Athlete who having represented a country at senior level changes nationality or acquires a new nationality may not represent the new country for three years after the date the Athlete last represented the original country without the written approval of the NAs concerned and the Executive Board. Unless the Athlete elects to represent the new country in accordance with this paragraph the Athlete may continue to represent the original country.
- H. If an associated State, a province or overseas department of a country or a colony, acquires its independence, or if a country becomes incorporated within another country by reason of a change of borders, or if a new NA is recognized by the IKF, an Athlete may continue to represent the country to which he belongs or belonged. However, he may, if he prefers, elect to represent his new country. This choice may only be made once.
- I. In all cases not expressly addressed in the Statutes or Bye Laws, in particular in those cases in which an Athlete would be in a position to represent a country other than that of which he is a national or to have a choice as to the country which he intends to represent, the Executive Board may take all decisions of a general or individual nature, and in particular issue specific requirements relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of Athletes, including the length of any waiting period.
- J. The Executive Board is empowered to recognize suspensions or disqualifications of clubs declared by the NA to which they belong and, if so, to see to it that these decisions are applied by all NAs.
- K. The Executive Board may authorise NAs to play against non affiliated associations. Such authorisation may be given for each occasion but only when the non affiliated association has shown interest in seeking affiliation to the IKF.
- L. To be eligible to represent a country in an inter nations event an athlete must be a national of the country. Where more than one country recognizes the nationality of an athlete, that athlete may only represent the IKF member country in which the athlete is a bona fide resident at the time of initial selection. Where countries share common nationality and common residency within one international border an athlete will be eligible to represent one of these countries as determined by where:
- He was born; or
 - One of his parents was born; or
 - He has been a bona fide resident in the country he wishes to represent for a continuous period of at least three (3) years prior to the date of the tournament.

For the purposes of this Bye Law, bona fide residence means that the athlete has permanently resided in the country he wishes to represent for a continuous period of 210 days in each year

Bye Law (B) To Article 5.2

Rules governing eligibility for the Olympic Games and International Events

A. General Principles

A1 All Athletes shall:

- (a) Respect the spirit of fair play and non violence and behave accordingly on the field of play; and
- (b) Abstain from using substances prohibited by the rules of the IOC and/or the IKF.

A2 An Athlete may not:

- (a) Have been expelled for life from an International Sports Federation or a National Sports Association

(b) Allow his person, name, and picture or sports performance to be used for advertising purposes during the Olympic Games, unless permitted by the IOC Executive Board.

B. Prizes

- B1 Organisers of Invitational Events may provide prizes in addition to the medals and trophies approved by the IKF or its official Event representative.
- B2 Application for permission to present prizes in cash or kind must reach the offices of the IKF not less than two (2) weeks before the first day of the event.
- B3 Upon the IKF granting approval for an Invitational Event the host NA must notify the IKF of the total value of any cash prizes and agree to pay to the IKF, by way of an additional fee, 10% of that value, within twenty eight (28) days of completion of the event. These funds will be utilised by the IKF to develop and promote Kabaddi throughout the world.
- B4 Prizes in cash can only be given to the NA of the team concerned and all cash should be given in convertible currency.
- B5 Prizes in kind awarded to players should be determined by objective considerations and under no circumstances may prizes be awarded to umpires or officials. No prize or financial remuneration for the performance of a player or team is permitted during the Olympic Games.

C. Penalties

The Executive Board or its appointed disciplinary body or official is fully empowered to take decisions relating to violation of these eligibility rules.

Bye Law To Article 5.5

Code of Conduct

- A. The Executive Board may establish a Code of Conduct applicable for participants at any Event and may amend, add to or rescind the Code of Conduct, in whole or in part, at any time.
- B. Before each Event the representative of each NA shall submit a written statement confirming that each one of its team officials and players participating in the event has agreed to observe the IKF Statutes and Bye Laws, the Rules of Kabaddi, the Tournament Regulations, the Anti Doping Regulations, the Code of Conduct and the directives brought to their notice.

ARTICLE 6 - MEMBERSHIP

6.1 Requirements for Membership

- (a) An NA of a country may be or remain affiliated to the IKF only if it governs all forms of Kabaddi in that country.
- (b) The activities of the Members of the IKF shall be solely and exclusively concerned with the Kabaddi in their own country but the Executive Board may make special and temporary allowance in this regard in respect of new small NAs.
- (c) In the case of a country where the creation of a NA is currently impractical the IKF may admit an organisation of that country as an Adherent Member. Adherent Members have no voting rights but in all other respects shall be regarded as Members.
- (d) Every Member must declare:
- (i) Its opposition to any discrimination on the grounds of race, gender, politics, religion or creed; and
 - (ii) That it has the exclusive right to govern Kabaddi in its own country.
- (e) NAs fulfilling the criteria for membership of the IKF may be provisionally admitted by the Executive Board and formally admitted by the first Congress following application for membership.
- (f) Membership of the IKF is conditional upon the applicant for membership being accepted as a member of the respective CF.

6.2 Statutes Binding on Members

The Statutes, Bye-laws, Rules, Regulations and decisions of the IKF, the Executive Board and the Committees of the IKF are binding upon all Members.

6.3 Application for Membership

Applications for membership must be made to the Hon. Secretary General and must be accompanied by following for consideration of membership:

- (a) The constitution of the NA;
- (b) The names and addresses of its officers;
- (c) The number of its individual members, a member being any person whatever gender or age who is affiliated to the NA;
- (d) An attestation, endorsement, and confirmation by its NOC that the NA has been accepted as a member of the NOC and is the central authority responsible for all matters relating to Kabaddi in the country concerned. If a NOC has not yet been formed in the country, or if formed but not yet recognized by the IOC, the endorsement shall be given by the highest national authority in sport.
- (e) A declaration that they are opposed to any discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, politics, religion or creed;
- (f) A copy of its anti-doping regulations which must be compliant with the IKF Anti-Doping regulations and with the World Anti-Doping Code
- (g) A declaration that it has applied for membership of the relevant CF;
- (h) A financial document (audited annual accounts) indicating that the NA is solvent; and
- (i) A written guarantee to adhere to and abide by the Statutes, Bye Laws, Rules and Regulations including Article 19 regarding the jurisdiction of the IKF.

6.4 Subscriptions

- (a) Members shall pay such subscriptions as are decided by the Congress.
- (b) Without prejudice to Article 6.5(b) any NA whose subscription or any other money due and owing to the IKF's outstanding and unpaid shall not be entitled to take part in the Congress.

6.5 Suspension/Expulsion

- (a) Upon the proposal of the Executive Board, the Congress may suspend or expel any NA owing more than two annual subscriptions. Any NA which has been expelled and which is readmitted to membership must pay all arrears up to the date of expulsion.
- (b) Unless it settles its outstanding debts at least three (3) months beforehand, no team representing that Member may participate in any Event without the approval of the Executive Board.
- (c) The Executive Board may at any time by resolution of which proper notice has been given and by a Special Majority suspend a Member for conduct which is inconsistent with its responsibilities as a Member subject to such suspension being ratified by a Special Majority of the Members voting at the next Congress, which may also decide to expel the Member. The Member shall be given the opportunity to be heard by the Congress.
- (d) When a NOC is suspended by the IOC, the IKF undertakes on a request by the IOC to suspend its corresponding NA and to forbid all other NAs from having any contact with the suspended NA.
- (e) When the running or the composition of a NA is arbitrarily modified by the decision of a body from outside the Olympic Movement this NA may be suspended from the IKF which in turn may request the IOC to suspend the corresponding NOC.

- (f) The suspension from the IKF referred to in paragraphs (d) and (e) shall be decided by the Executive Board subject to ratification by the next Congress.
- (g) Expulsion, withdrawal or suspension of any Member from the IKF will mean simultaneous expulsion, withdrawal or suspension from the corresponding CF and vice versa.

6.6 Withdrawal

Any Member may withdraw from the IKF at the end of any calendar year provided it has given at least six (6) months' notice in writing to the IKF and settles all outstanding dues, fees, levies and other monies payable to the IKF.

6.7 Transfer

- (a) Membership is not transferable.
- (b) If a Member ceases to be qualified to remain a member or is dissolved, ceases to exist or suspends operations and another body is created or comes into existence in place of that Member which satisfies the provisions of Articles 6.1 and 6.3 that other body may make application to become a Member.
- (c) On receipt of an application under paragraph (b), the Hon. Secretary General must notify the Member of the application and if the Member disputes the validity of such application it may by notice given to the Federation within forty-five (45) days of receiving such notification appeal to the JC against the granting of the application.
- (d) Subject to any appeal under paragraph (c), the Executive Board may provisionally admit the applicant to membership in place of the Member and the applicant may be formally admitted to membership by the first Congress following the application for membership.
- (e) There shall be no right of appeal to CAS from any decision of the JC, Executive Board or Congress in relation to any application under this clause

6.8 Rights of Provisional Members

Provisional Members are entitled to all the benefits of membership and must fulfill all obligations of a Member. Provisional Members may attend and speak but not vote at any Congress.

Bye Law To Article 6.4

Subscriptions

- A. Statutory subscriptions, fixed at each ordinary meeting of the Congress, must be paid before 31st March of the year concerned.
- B. The Executive Board has the right to charge interest on any amount outstanding or in default.
- C. Payment of subscriptions must be accompanied each year by a declaration signed by the President and Secretary of the NA stating the number of members as at 1 January of the current year and certifying that this information is exact.
- D. Although the subscriptions are payable in US Dollars, the Executive Board may decide that they be paid in another currency and in such case may fix the rate of exchange.

ARTICLE 7 – CONTINENTAL FEDERATIONS

- (c) Should a vacancy arise through the resignation, death or other cause of a Vice-President or an ordinary member, the seat shall remain vacant until the next ordinary Congress.
- (d) The Executive Board has the right to end the mandate of any member who has been absent for two (2) consecutive meetings without valid reason and in such case the seat shall remain vacant until the next ordinary Congress.

Bye Law B to Article 9.2(a)(ii)

Presidents of CF

If the President of a CF is unable to attend a meeting of the Executive Board he must as soon as possible (desirably not less than 10 days prior to the meeting) give written notice to the Hon Secretary General of his inability to attend. The notice must also contain details of the reasons for his inability to attend and the name of another person, who must be an office bearer of the CF, to represent the CF at that meeting. The decision whether or not to excuse the President and approve of his substitute must be made by the Office Bearers.

Bye Law B to Article 9.2(a)(iv)
Committees

Chairpersons of

The President in consultation with the Office Bearers may decide that for a particular meeting of the Executive Board some or all of the Committee Chairs specified in Article 9.2(a)(iv) will not be invited to attend that meeting and in any such case the Committee Chairs specified by the President will not then be required to attend that meeting.

Bye Law To Article 9.3(b)(iii) Committees and Boards (other than the Judicial Commission)

- A. The Committees of the Executive Board are set out in paragraph P.
- B. Nominations for members of Committees shall be made as follows:
 - Nominations must be sent to the Hon. Secretary General by nominee s own NA or CF.
 - A CF must consult with the relevant NA before making any nomination.
 - Nominations must include a brief statement of the nominee s suitability for the position for which he is being nominated.
 - Each NA must give to the IKF an undertaking to financially support its nominee(s), whether he is nominated by his NA or his CF, so he can attend meetings of the Committee to which he is nominated.
 - CF s are entitled to appoint a member to each of the following 5 Committees: Development & Coaching, Competitions, Marketing, Communications + IT and Umpiring, provided they have equivalent Committees in their organisation.
 - The Executive Board shall appoint the members of the Committees from the nominations received after screening each nomination and consulting the Presidents of the CFs and the Chairpersons of the respective Committee to ensure that the nominees are suitable for the Committee to which they have been nominated.
- C. Members of Committees shall be appointed by the Executive Board at the meeting immediately following the ordinary meeting of the Congress and shall hold office for four (4) years.
- D. Each Committee must include a member of each CF and both genders must be represented.
- E. The Chairperson and the Secretary of each Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Board. The Chairperson of each Committee shall hold office for two (2) years but is eligible for re-appointment.
- F. The Executive Board may by Special Majority withdraw the appointment of a member of a Committee and in such case may appoint another person to fill the vacancy but the person so appointed shall only remain a member of the Committee until the next round of Committee appointments but shall be eligible for re appointment.
- G. The Executive Board may fill any casual vacancy on a Committee but the person so appointed shall only remain a member of the Committee until the next round of Committee appointments but shall be eligible for re appointment.
- H. For every meeting of a Committee an official notice with an agenda must be circulated to the members concerned at least six (6) weeks in advance. All Committees must submit a report of each meeting to the Executive Board for ratification of decisions.
- I. Each Committee must develop a Business Plan that must be approved by the Executive Board. No change may be made to a business plan without the prior approval of the executive board. Once approved each committee has authority to implement its business plan.

- J. In between meetings, the Committees are administered by their secretaries in liaison with their respective Chairpersons.
- K. Chairpersons, Secretaries and other members of Committees may not send official correspondence or other forms of official communication on behalf of the IKF without the authority of the President, Hon. Secretary General, Director General or their duly authorized delegate(s).
- L. No member of a Committee may participate in any discussion or vote on any subject brought before the Committee for consideration and decision if that member has or may have, directly or indirectly, an interest in the outcome of the consideration and decision of that subject without first declaring the conflict of interest and may not vote on that subject. Members of Committees must observe the Conflict of Interest Policy and Guidelines adopted by the Executive Board
- M. Committees must meet at least once in 2 years at such places and times as the Executive Board determines.
- N. Presidents of CFs, members of the Executive Board and members of the Athletes Panel may be members of and chairpersons of Committees. The Chairperson of each Committee is responsible in the first instance for determining whether or not a member is entitled to vote on any subject by reason of that member having an interest in the outcome. The decision of the Chairperson must be respected and upheld by both the member in question and the Committee. If any doubt arises in any given situation the same must be referred to the Hon. Secretary General for adjudication. If the Hon. Secretary General is unable to resolve the question, it shall be referred to the Executive Board for a decision. If the Executive Board is unable to resolve the question, it shall be referred to the Ethics Commission of the IOC for decision.
- O. The Athletes Representative must be appointed (and replaced) by the Athletes Committee failing which by the Executive Board, must preferably be a recently retired player, may only be elected for one four (4) year term unless an extension of the term is approved by Congress and is not eligible for re election. ARTICLE 19 – JURISDICTION OF THE IKF

19.1 Agreements

Any person dealing with the IKF or participating in its activities including any person who:

- (a) plays or acts as an official of any team in any event organised by or under the jurisdiction of IKF;
- (b) acts as an umpire or tournament official in any event organised by or under the jurisdiction of IKF;
- (c) organises or participates in the organisation of any event approved by the IKF; or
- (d) holds any position whatsoever in the IKF including but not limited to the Executive Board and the Committees;

Thereby acknowledges that:

- (e) the IKF has full jurisdiction and authority over everything concerning Kabaddi and the playing of Kabaddi;
- (f) the Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations for the time being in force are legal and binding and agrees to comply with them without reservation;
- (g) the IKF has full jurisdiction, power and authority to take any decisions and apply any sanctions in accordance with the Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations and agrees to be bound by such decisions and sanctions;
- (h) the CAS is the only other body, outside the IKF, having jurisdiction to the exclusion of all other courts or arbitration bodies of any country or organisation whatsoever:
 - (i) to resolve any conflict involving the IKF; and
 - (ii) to rule as an external appeals body on any decision or sanction of any nature whatsoever taken by the JC;
- (i) the definitive and unappealable nature of decisions handed down by the CAS with which they pledge to comply in good faith without seeking to hinder their application; and
- (j) the Proper Law is the applicable law of the IKF.

19.2 Confirmation of Agreements

- (a) Notwithstanding the binding nature of these Statutes and the provisions of Article 19.1, each NA shall undertake appropriate steps to make them binding upon each of its members under its own rules. In addition the IKF may require written agreements in a form to be determined by the Executive Board from time to time from any of the following:
 - (i) any NA or CF;
 - (ii) any player (senior or junior) or any official of any team;
 - (iii) any umpire or other official appointed by or with the authority of the IKF; and
 - (iv) any other person or body with whom the IKF has any association.
- (b) In the event that a person or body challenges the provisions of the Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules, Regulations and decisions, the Executive Board may exclude that person or body from participating in Events as long as the dispute is pending before the competent Jurisdictional Body or by CAS, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 20 – SANCTIONS

The JC and any other body authorised under the Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations to hear and determine any complaint, protest, claim, dispute or appeal may impose such sanction or sanctions as are laid down by the Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations or, by default thereof, such sanction or sanctions as it considers appropriate including but not limited to reprimand, fine (including interest), disqualification or suspension for such period as it determines appropriate, compensation, an order requiring a party to do or refrain from doing any act or thing and may also in its discretion award costs (including fees, charges and expenses).

ARTICLE 21 -COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS)

- 21.1 Any person or body who is or which is subject to a decision of the JC may appeal to the CAS, to the exclusion of any other jurisdiction, whether ordinary or arbitrational, in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration (appeals arbitration proceedings).
- 21.2 The appeal must be made in writing to the CAS within fourteen (14) days of the notification of the decision in question by the IKF to the person concerned or his NA.
- 21.3 Pending the decision of the CAS, any sanction imposed by the JC (other than a sanction imposed under the IKF Anti-Doping Regulations which shall remain in force) shall be suspended.
- 21.4 A copy of the appeal and of the statements must be given to the IKF at the same time as it is given to the CAS.
- 21.5 The CAS shall apply the Proper law.

ARTICLE 22 – PROCEDURAL FAIRNESS

- 22.1 The JC and any other body that is authorised under the Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules and regulations to exercise jurisdiction must ensure that procedures are fair to all interested parties and uphold those parties' basic rights. In particular they must ensure that:
 - (a) no person who has a conflict of interest participates in a decision-making body;
 - (b) the accused person is informed of the charges against him and the potential sanctions if the charges are upheld;
 - (c) the accused person or body is given access to all relevant material in the possession or under the control of the IKF, is given every reasonable opportunity to defend the charges and to be heard and is given the right to produce evidence and to be accompanied and/or assisted by an advisor; and
 - (d) the Proper Law is applied.
- 22.2 Other than as may be specified in the IKF Anti-Doping Regulations and the World Anti-Doping Code, the burden of proof falls on the party bringing the matter before the JC or other person or body authorised to exercise jurisdiction in the matter
- 22.3 There is no internal appeal from a decision of the JC. Appeal to the CAS is the only recourse available in accordance with Article 21.1.

ARTICLE 23 -MODIFICATION

- 23.1 These Statutes may be amended, added to or rescinded by a resolution of the Congress passed by a Special Majority. No such resolution shall be submitted to the Congress unless the prior notice prescribed by the Bye-laws has been given to all NAs.
- 23.2 Any modification of the Statutes must be proposed by a Member or by the Executive Board.
- 23.3 The proposal must reach the Hon. Secretary General not later than three (3) months before the date fixed for the ordinary meeting of the Congress. The Hon. Secretary General shall communicate any proposal to the Members when summoning the meeting of the Congress.
- 23.4 A proposal may be withdrawn at any time but a withdrawal by a Member must be in writing unless it is made by the Head of the delegation of that Member during the meeting of the Congress.

ARTICLE 24 -DISSOLUTION

- 24.1 The IKF may only be dissolved at an Extraordinary meeting of the Congress convened for the purpose and by a resolution supported by a Special Majority.
- 24.2 If dissolved, all debts and liabilities legally incurred on behalf of the IKF shall be fully discharged and the remaining assets, if any, shall be donated to the Foundation for the Promotion and the Development of Kabaddi or a similar body established for the promotion and development of Kabaddi.

ARTICLE 25 -INDEMNITY

Every member of the Executive Board, every member of a Committee, sub-Committee or working groups, every member of the Judicial Commission, every person appointed by the IKF to perform a special assignment, every official and every officer:

- (a) Shall be indemnified out of the assets of the IKF against any liability arising out of the execution of the duties of his office which is incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, provided that in the execution and discharge of his duties he has acted in the ordinary course of his duties, whether or not judgment is given in his favour or he is acquitted; and
- (b) Shall not be answerable or accountable for anything done or omitted by any other person.
